3. Selection:

- 3.1 The Teams (men and women) will be selected based on eligible athlete standings on the WUG Ranking Lists. The WUG ranking lists will be established by using the CPL scoring system, including all races eligible for CPL points, and as further set out in this section.
- 3.2 The Distance Ranking List for each gender will rank eligible athletes based on the sum of their best four CPL points results from distance races in the 2019-20 season (July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020). The Sprint Ranking List for each gender will rank eligible athletes based on the sum of their best two CPL points results from sprint races in the 2019-20 (July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020.) CPL sprint points are based on qualification only, not final result in a sprint race.
- 3.3 Subject to paragraph 3.5, the top two athletes on the sprint ranking list for each gender will be selected followed by the top four athletes on the distance ranking list of each gender. If an athlete in the top four on the distance ranking list was also in the top two on the sprint ranking list, the next ranked athlete on the distance ranking list will be selected.
- 3.4 If a selected athlete declines nomination to the team or is unable to compete, the selection of the next athlete will be made such that the team composition remains the two highest ranked available athletes on the sprint ranking list with the remaining positions being filled from the distance ranking list.
- 3.5 Ties will be broken by the single highest CPL race points.
- 3.6 Athletes interested in participating in the FISU WUG are required to contact the Team Leader Katja Mathys cd@xcskiontario.ca by May 1, 2020 to confirm their intent.
- 3.7 The WUG Ranking Lists will be published on the Nordiq Canada website by May 1, 2020. Selected athletes will be contacted via email before May 3. Athletes have until May 13, 2020 to accept their nomination. The Team will be announced May 15 on the Nordiq Canada website.
