

Nordic Canada 2022 AGM

Proposal for Gatineau/Ottawa

Event Proposal

- Évènements Nordiques Gatineau Nordic Events (ENGNE) welcomes the opportunity to host Nordiq Canada's 2022 Annual General Meeting (AGM) in Gatineau, Quebec, the traditional unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg People
- ENGNE is committed to work closely with Nordiq Canada and our parent Division's SFQ, as well as XCSO, to bring together the leadership of the Association for corporate planning and decision-making on the first or second weekend in June 2022.
- ENGNE are prepared to accept the responsibilities for the planning and execution of all administrative arrangements and support, as defined in the AGM Planning and Preparation (2019) policy, in coordination with the DAC.

Event Overview

- Évènements Nordiques Gatineau Nordic Events (ENGNE) is working closely with Outaouais Tourism to create the custom meeting package Nordic Canada needs while addressing the budgetary requirements.

- Our proposal is targeting hotel and meeting facilities in Gatineau, Quebec, but we will table a more regional alternative.
- ENGNE anticipate hosting the following schedule of events;
 - Thursday – arrival, checking and casual evening meet and greet
 - Friday – meetings + evening social event for attendees
 - Saturday – meetings + evening banquet to celebrate achievements and contributors in our sport
 - Sunday – morning meeting / possibly a volunteer social activity
 - Details to be refined once available.
