THE SPEAKERS

About Cody Royle

Cody is the author of two influential leadership books; Where Others Won't and The Tough Stuff. After a decade coaching Canada's men's AFL national team, Cody now mentors over a dozen head coaches across many sports including the NBA, WNBA, Premier League, international rugby, and international field hockey.

About Allison Forsyth

Safe Sport is her purpose. A two-time Olympian, 8-time Canadian Champion and a top 15 world ranked athlete for nearly a decade, Allison is an athlete, advocate, and change maker. She is a proud board member of AthletesCAN and an advisory Committee Member of the SDRCC. She also supported the CCES in the development of the Universal Code of Conduct and acted as an athlete advocate in the development of the CAC Safe Sport training and education. Allison aims to make sport a safe, positive place for athletes of all levels.

About Peter Niedre

Peter holds a Master's degree in Human Kinetics – Exercise Physiology and a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Ottawa. Peter comes from a 10-year tenure with Canoe Kayak Canada where he led the organization's national coaching education programs as well as the development of the athlete development matrix and is currently the Director of Education Partnerships with the Coaching Association of Canada. He is an avid cross country skier and sits on the board of Biathlon Ontario.

About Tim Konoval

Tim Konoval earned a PhD a Sport and Coach Development from the University of Alberta. He has developed a resource to help coaches 'become para ready', which he will present in the workshop. In addition, he has led a project with the Coaching Association of Canada and the Canadian Paralympic Committee that examined disability inclusion in Canada's National Coaching Certification Program. He is excited to help Nordic ski coaches and clubs learn how to be more inclusive and become 'para ready'.
